

ART Observations and Reflections

What is the artist trying to say in this picture?

What question would you like to ask the artist?

Three words to describe it are ...

What materials have been used? Has the artist worked from observation, memory or imagination?

What skills does this artist have?

What did the artwork make you think about?

'Blue Tile and ice Water' by Ralph Goings
Oil on canvas
1987

What do you dislike about this picture?

Who do you think would like this picture?

What is the best thing about this picture?

I'm puzzled by ...

It made me wonder...