

'The Unknown Soldier' by Charles Sargeant Jagger 1922    Paddington Railway Station, London

Why is this sculpture in a railway station? Where could he be going?

Why should this sculpture be in the railway station? Or is it in the wrong place?

What is he doing? Why is this important?

What does it make you feel or think about?